

Anne L. Meyers

Anne Meyers founded the law firm of Meyers, Roman, Friedberg & Lewis in 1995, and managed its growth from four attorneys to a full-service firm with 25 attorneys. She transitioned management to her partners in 2011 and has remained active in the firm specializing in representing small-to-medium-sized businesses often as outside general counsel, and in business succession, start-up and new ventures, construction, and surety matters. She has an “AV” rating with Martindale Hubbell. Ms. Meyers is active in many professional and nonprofit organizations, including non-traditional educational and community programs and is a fellow of the Cleveland Metropolitan Bar Foundation. In 2009, she received the prestigious Top 10 Women Business Owners of Northeast Ohio Award, given by the Cleveland chapter of the National Association of Women Business Owners (NAWBO) and in 2019 received the ORT, Ohio Region Jurisprudence Award. For many years, she participated in and chaired AJC Cleveland’s Isaiah Award for Human Relations Committee. Ms. Meyers is also a member of AJC’s national Board of Governors and serves on many national committees. Anne Meyers is a graduate of The Ohio State University and Capital University Law School.
