

Suzanne D. Jaffe

Suzanne (Suzi) Denbo Jaffe is president of S.D.J. Associates, a pension-fund consulting business. She was previously managing director of several investment management firms and served as deputy comptroller for investment and cash management for New York State. She currently serves on the Executive Council of AJC and is the immediate past Treasurer. She previously served as Associate Treasurer and chair of the Budget Committee. Suzi Jaffe is a past president of AJC New York as well as past vice president of the national AJC Board of Governors and past chair of AJC's Investment Committee. She serves on the Advisory Board of Project Interchange and the Administrative Council of the Jacob Blaustein Institute for Human Rights. Ms. Jaffe chairs the Audit Committee of the JCRC of NY. She serves on the Board of Urban Glass and previously, was on the boards of Burnham Investment Trust, the Research Corporation for Science Advancement, and was president of the Smithsonian Archives of American Art.